

Minutes – April 11, 2018

- Call to order: 6:39 pm
- Agenda approved
- Principal's Report – Jennifer Gibson
 - Art start project
 - Thinking of ways to celebrate the grand unveiling
 - Can PAC help with cookies?
 - Island Sexual Health giving talks to grades 4 and 5 this week (April 9)
 - Working on transitioning future grade 6 students from Millstream into middle school at John Stubbs
 - 11 students will be joining John Stubbs in September
 - Students will tour school in May
 - Lunch monitor appreciation will be on April 13
 - Lunch monitors will go swimming at JDF Rec
 - Grade 8 students touring Belmont on April 16
 - Grades 3, 4, and 5 students going to Colwood Firehall on April 17
 - Jump Rope for Heart
 - Island hoppers coming in May for a demonstration
 - Fundraising will go home in May
 - Terry Fox Run on April 27
 - Music Monday coming on May 7
 - Grades 1-5 will be walking to Q Centre in the morning
 - Elementary gym is going to be used for BOGO book fair
 - May 22 – 25
 - Next year, both computer labs will be converted into classrooms
 - 2018/2019 school year will have 34 divisions
 - 23 Elementary
 - 11 Middle
- President's Report – Sheryl Williamson
 - Agendas
 - Will be ordered for grades 1-5
 - Some will be purchased so that middle school students can purchase them if requested
 - School supplies
 - We will be going with School Start for school supplies this year
 - Details will be sent out in late May/early June
 - Nominations for executive positions now open
 - Positions available
 - President
 - Vice-President
 - Treasurer
 - Secretary

- Hot lunches are going fine
- Spring fair is coming up on May 3
- Popcorn also going well
 - May PAC meeting we'll discuss how to split the money to donate to charity
 - Brian will give us an amount of what's available to spend
 - $150 has already been donated to 3 middle school students who shaved their heads for cancer
- Fundraising report – Jocelyn Edmunds
 - Art cards going ok
 - Next year we will start in January
 - Westside charging $25 late charge on plaques and mugs, no late orders will be accepted
 - Magazine fundraiser will go out after art cards are done
 - Spring fair
 - All going well
 - Jocelyn taking on silent auction
 - Kirsten L. to update on vendors
 - Only 3 vendors signed up for vendor fair
 - We will move the vendor fair to the evening of the BOGO book fair to hopefully draw more traffic
 - Looking at adding a lounge on the top field for middle school students
 - Ask for them to volunteer for an hour and then they can hang out
 - Volunteers will get hot dogs/pizza
- Treasurer's report – Brian Robson
 - March is all balanced
 - Will speak with Kelly in the office to receive her spreadsheet to help cross-check funds better
- Emergency preparedness report – Lauren Wakefield
 - April 17 at Colwood City Hall there will be a Tsunami awareness meeting
- Adjourn – 8:21 pm